CHAPTER-II

APPLICATION FOR REGISTRATION OF DESIGN AND REQUIREMENTS

8. Application for registration of design.—(1) An application under section 5 of the Ordinance shall be made on Form D-1 along with —

- (a) the prescribed fee set out in the First Schedule;
- (b) sufficiently clear representation of design as applied to the Finished article; and
- (c) document evidencing the priority claim to be issued from relevant authority of the country of application if a priority right is claimed under section 12 of the Ordinance.

(2) The filing date of an application shall be the date on which the Patent Office receives documents indicated under sub-rule (1), otherwise, the application shall be treated as if it had not been filed.

(3) The application shall mention the class in which the design is to be registered and the article or articles to which the design is to be applied.

(4) Where it is desired to register the same design in respect of more than one class of articles, a separate application shall be made in respect of each class of articles. In that case, each application shall be numbered separately and shall be treated as a separate and distinct application and shall contain the number of the Convention application.

(5) If the application for design is related to a set of articles, it shall mention the name of every article.

(6) If so required by the Registrar, the applicant shall state purpose for which the article is used.

(7) A claim under sub-clause (ii) of clause (h) of section 2 of the Ordinance that an application for a design shall proceed in the name of the claimant or in the name of claimants and the applicant or the other joint applicants shall be made on Form D=1 along with prescribed fee and a certified copy of any assignment or agreement upon which the claim is based. The Registrar may call for original assignment or agreement and such other proof of title or written consent as the case may be.

(8) Application under section 6 of the Ordinance for the registration of same design in respect of other articles shall be made on Form D-1 by—

- (a) the proprietor of original design; or
- (b) authorized person different from proprietor of original design.

9. Grace period in case of disclosure.—(1) Disclosure under sub-section (3) of section 3 of the Ordinance shall be without prejudice to the novelty or originality, as the case may be, of the industrial design provided that disclosure is made by—

- (a) the creator; or
- (b) his successor in interest; or
- (c) authorization of the creator or his successor in interest.

(2) If the applicant claims that sub-section (3) of section 3 of the Ordinance applies in relation to his application, he shall include statement to that effect.

(3) The statement under sub-rule (2) shall—

- (a) identify the provision of sub-section (3) of section 3 of the Ordinance that applies in relation to the application;
- (b) describe the circumstances under which the disclosure of the design was made; and
- (c) the name and opening date of the exhibition, the place where it is held, and the date of the first disclosure of the design.

(4) The applicant may file additional information or documents in support of his claim.

10. Representation of design to be furnished.—(1) Representations of the design shall be furnished in the form of—

- (a) drawings; or
- (b) photographs; or
- (c) three dimensional modeling; or
- (d) combination of any of above; or
- (e) any other visual representation of design.

(2) The representation of design may be in color or in black and white.

(3) If the Registrar in any case so requires, the applicant shall furnish specimen of design in addition to representations.

(4) The applicant shall submit application Form D-1 along with numbered copies of representations as mentioned in the Form and each copy of representation shall bear the date and be signed by the applicant or his authorized agent.

(5) The design may be represented by one view that fully discloses the industrial design, or by several different views that fully disclose the design.

(6) Where representation is in respect of an article having movable parts, such movable parts shall be shown in the same relative position in all dimensions.

(7) The representation shall be free from lines and descriptive matter other than the designations of the different dimensions.

(8) If shadow of a part of any view is necessary to indicate a particular feature of which novelty is claimed such shadow shall be a permanent light wash which does not obscure any features possibly present within the coloured area.

(9) Notwithstanding sub-rule (4), additional specific views may be required by the Registrar where such views are necessary to fully show the product that incorporates the design or in relation to which the design is to be used. However, additional views disclosing new subject matter affecting the design, which are not derivable from the original view or views, do not have to be admitted.

(10) When a design is to be applied to a set of articles, each representation accompanying the application shall show all the arrangements in which it is proposed to apply the design to the articles included in the set of articles.

(11) When a design is to be applied to a set of articles, any doubt whether the given articles do or do not constitute a set of articles shall be determined by the Registrar.

(12) Each representation of the design, whether to be applied to a single article or to a set of articles, shall be on A4 size paper and not on cardboard and shall appear only on one side of the paper. The figure shall be placed in an upright position on the sheet. When more than one figure are shown, these shall, where possible, be on one and the same sheet, and each shall be designated perspective view, front view, side view, plan, or otherwise, as the case may be.

(13) When the representations furnished are drawings, these shall be in permanent ink.

(14) Photographs shall be printed or pasted on the representation sheets firmly only with the help of strong adhesive, not by any other means including stapler pin and cello tape. The photograph provided shall be submitted showing the feature of articles clearly or to the satisfaction of the Registrar.

(15) Registration of design consisting of name, arms, flags, etc. where—

- (a) a representation of the name, initials, armorial bearings, insignia, orders of chivalry, decorations, flags or devices of any state, settlement, city, borough, town, place, society, body corporate, government body, statutory board, institution or person appears on a design which is the subject of an application for registration, the Registrar may, before proceeding to register the design, require the applicant to furnish the Registrar with the consent to the registration and use of the matter in question of such official or other person as appears to the Registrar to be entitled to give consent; and
- (b) the Registrar shall refuse to register the design if no such consent under clause (a) is furnished within the time specified by the Registrar.

(16) A statement of novelty describing the features of the design which the applicant considers to be new shall appear at the bottom of the representation.

(17) The representation of an application for the registration of design which is two dimensional repeating surface patterns, shall include complete pattern and a sufficient portion of the repeat, in length and width and shall not be of less size than A4 size paper. The application shall also contain a statement that it relates to a repeating surface pattern.

11. Excluded designs.—(1) The Registrar shall refuse to register a design intended to be applied to any of the following articles,—

- (a) a painting, a sculpture, a drawing including a diagram, map, chart or plan;
- (b) engraving or a photograph, whether or not any such work possesses artistic quality;
- (c) an architectural work of art;
- (d) any other work or artistic craftsmanship;
- (e) a design contrary to public order or morality; and

(f) Trademark and trade-dress.

(2) When words, letters, or numerals appear in the design but are not of the essence of the design, they shall be removed from the representation or specimen. Where they are of the essence of the design, the Registrar may require the insertion of a disclaimer of any right to their exclusive LISC.

(3) Designs excluded from protection under the Copyright Ordinance, 1962 (XXXIV of 1962). A design shall be deemed to be used as a model or pattern to be multiplied by any industrial process within the meaning of the Copyright Ordinance, 1962 (XXXIV of 1962)—

- (a) when the design is reproduced or is intended to be reproduced in more than fifty single articles, unless all the articles in which the design is reproduced or is intended to be reproduced together from only a single set; and
- (b) where the design is to be applied to—
 - (i) printed paper;
 - (ii) carpets, floor-cloths;
 - (iii) textile goods; or
 - (iv) laces not made by hands.

CHAPTER-III

(2) For all matters falling under the provisions of rule 31, any person may, unless otherwise directed by the Registrar, authorize, under his personal signatures, a legal practitioner or a patent agent to act as his agent and to receive all notices, requisitions and communications. The authority may be given in the form as set out in Form D-13 along with prescribed fee.

(3) If authority under rule 29 is not filed along with application Form at the time of application filing, a request for change of address for service along with form D-13 shall be filed on Form D-2 along with prescribed fee.

(4) Where an address for service has not been furnished to the Registrar, the Registrar may treat the residential or business address as the address for service, unless the residential or business address is out of Pakistan, in which case the Registrar need not proceed with the examination of the application until an address for service in Pakistan has been furnished to him.

CHAPTER-IX

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS

33. Service copy of application to the Registrar.—Where an application to the High Court has been made, the applicant shall forthwith serve a copy of the application to the Registrar, who shall enter a notice of the application in the register.

34. General Powers of the Registrar to extend time.—(1) The time prescribed by these rules for doing any act or taking any proceeding thereunder may be extended not exceeding three months by the Registrar, if he deems appropriate, and upon such terms as he may direct.

(2) A request for extension of the period as in sub-rule (1) shall be made as set out in Form D-4 along with prescribed fee.

(3) Whether an applicant or agent desires to be heard or not, the Registrar may at any time require him to submit a statement on affidavit in writing within a time to be notified by the Registrar, or to attend before him and make explanations with respect to such matter as the Registrar may require.

(4) An amendment in official document for which no special provision is made by the Ordinance, or an irregularity in procedure found in the opinion of Registrar, may be obviated without detriment to the interest of any person, may be corrected, if the Registrar deems appropriate and upon such term as he may direct.

35. Action consequent upon Court order.—Where an order has been made by the High Court in any case under the Ordinance, the person in whose favour the order has been made shall forthwith lodge an application on Form D-12 along with prescribed fee and accompanied by a sealed copy of the order or a certified copy of the Court order, and thereupon the register shall, if applicable, be corrected or rectified by making of any entry therein or the variation or deletion of any entry therein in accordance with the order of the Court.

36. Repeal.—The Patents and Designs Rules, 1933 are hereby repealed.
